Here Is the List of Contestants

In The Washington Herald's Great Prize-giving Contest.

Our Five Grand Prizes.

First Grand Capital Prize: HOUSE AND LOT. COST $5,850. Purchased from Middaugh & Shannon, "The Homes of a Hundred Ideas."

Second Grand Prize: WHITE STEAMER AUTOMOBILE. VALUED AT $2,250.

Third Grand Prize: COLUMBIA VICTORIA ELECTRIC. VALUED AT $1.600. Purchased from Dupont Garage Co

HE LIST below is the last which will appear until the final count is made on the night of Saturday, July 3, when the counting committee, composed of Messrs. John N. Ehle, Father Fealy, Lieut. William H. Santelmann, E. H. Jemison, and W. L. Pierce, will open the ballot box, count all the ballots which are found therein, and announce the winners as soon as the count is made. This we hope to be able to do the following day in The Washington Herald, although we cannot promise to do so, as it may take somewhat longer than we expect to count the ballots. An illustration of what a contestant can do when he really tries is found in the case of Mr. John N. Ehle, who for the first time appears to-day among the five leaders. Not only that, but he leads the entire list. Evidently he has been working quietly but none the less steadily, and it is somewhat of a surprise to see his name at the top to-day. This is proof of the argument we have been making all along-that you never know what you can do until you try, and try real hard. There is not one contestant in the list who could not have done better than he has. One seldom does one's best, though, of course, it is not always necessary. In this instance, however, it may be, and every contestant whose name is to be found below should work harder than ever during the next few days. A greater opportunity has never been offered you, and one week from to-day it will no longer be yours. Take advantage of it while you may. Such a one may never present itself again.

Our Five Grand Prizes.

Fourth Grand Prize: A BUILDING LOT. VALUED AT $2,145.

Fifth Grand Prize: EUROPEAN TOUR.

With Privilege of Selecting a Friend.
